CLEAN-UP WEEK PRIZES.

Awarded Monday—Money Offered by Mayor Dunn Distributed to Children
 —St. Joseph School Leads.

The school committee of the Willimantic Civic Society's general committee on Clean-up week distributed Monday to the children the prizes offered by Mayor Daniel F. Dunn for the best work done in the campaign for cleaner city. There was a first prize of $2.50 in gold for each of the five grammar schools, who secured one dollar, and a school prize of $2.50 for the school whose pupils turned in the largest aggregate number of pledge-cards. The method of computation of the wards was based on the signature by property owners or tenants of cards bearing the name of a pupil in the public schools, who solicited their help. Each signer has assisted in the campaign by doing work upon his or her premises.

St. Joseph's school won the prize for the best aggregate with 323 votes or cards. The individual winners were: St. Joseph's, William Healey, first; Mildred Kelly, second; St. Mary's, Gretchen Vegard, first; Albert Paulhus, second; Natunga school, Olive Taylor, first; Doris Bradway, second; The Oaks, Peter Morin, first; Lillian Warner, second; Windham St., William Barbour, first; Leo Lamoureux, second. The work of the children in the campaign was of inestimable value to the committee, and the generosity Mayor Dunn made it possible for a material appreciation of their efforts to be shown. The committee thanked all the children who took part in the campaign and acknowledged their gratitude for the splendid work performed by the children of Willimantic.

Memorial Service Next Sunday.

The service held at the Congregational church Sunday evening at which the members of the local post of the G. A. R. were present, was not the annual commemorative service. That service will be held in the Baptist church Sunday, May 31, when Rev. William F. Rowley will deliver the address. The members of Francis S. Long Post, No. 34, will meet at their headquarters at 4.30 p. m. and the service will be held at 8 o'clock.

INVENTOR'S DEATH.

Dwight Madison Church Had Taken Out Over One Hundred Patents.

Dwight Madison Church, 75, and an inventor of note, died at his home, 1431 W. Main street at midnight Sunday following an attack of cerebral hemorrhage last Wednesday.

Mr. Church was for many years a machinist and his early life was spent in many different places in this and neighboring states, although most of his married life was passed in this city. In 1883 he was superintendent of the Plant Belt Works in New Haven, and later was employed by the Winchester Arms Company, helping to perfect their well known rifle of the name. More than a hundred patents stand in his name in the patent office at Washington, the better known of which are a ready wound bobbin for sewing machine shuttles and one for throwing switches from a moving engine, which is now in use on a railway in the state of Michigan.

Mr. Church was born in Mansfield, Sept. 29, 1837, the son of Henry and Emeline (Storrs) Church. He is survived by his wife, Hannah A. Church, to whom he had been married over 55 years; one daughter, Mrs. Le Etta Hoxie, a granddaughter, Ruth Hoxie, and an adopted sister, Miss A. Church of Chaplin.

Mrs. John Griggs.

Florence, wife of John Griggs of Holliston Mass., died at her home Saturday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Griggs were well known here, as they resided at Pleasant Valley for years. The deceased is survived by her husband and eight children. The body will be brought to this city for burial.

Mrs. Mary Clemens.

Mrs. Mary Clemens, a former resident of Willimantic, died Sunday at her home in Hartford. She is survived by her husband, Thomas Clemens of Hartford. The burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery in this city.

FUNERAL.

Mrs. Nellie A. Snow.
 The funeral of Samantha L. widow of Hollis A. Snow, was held Monday. Prayers were offered at the home of Mrs. James Healey in Chaplin at 11 in the morning and at 2 in the afternoon services were held at the home of Leander Snow in Eastford. Rev. J. B. King of Eastford officiated. The Rev. Mr. Leander, George, Newton and Edwin, sons of the deceased, were in the casket. Burial was in the Grove cemetery, Eastford. Funeral Director Jay M. Shepard was in charge.

Many Caterpillar Webs.

In spite of the good work done by the school children this spring in egg-mass contests, there are yet many caterpillar webs in this vicinity. Along the road to Chaplin through North and South streets, and on both sides of the road are well covered with the pests, whose ravages will be more apparent later on in the season.

Manchester Company Uses Local Range.

On account of the flooding of the range at Kensington, Co. G of Manchester of the First Regiment, C. N. G., held their annual field day on the local rifle range, which was used by Co. L Saturday. Co. G arrived in a special car attached to the 9.37 train Monday and marched to the field, where a programme similar to that of Co. L was carried out. The rifle range here is said by experts to be one of the best in the state.

Rev. William S. Beard Host to Ministers.

Rev. William S. Beard, pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, entertained a party of ministers from Hartford and vicinity at the Windham Inn Monday evening. One of the challenges famous dinners was served and a pleasant social time enjoyed. Those present were: Rev. R. H. Potter, D. D., and wife, Rev. Mr. Dunlop, Rev. Irving H. Berg and Rev. I. Stanley Voorhees of Hartford, Rev. Quincy Blakely and wife of Farmington, Rev. Ernest L. Winsner of Bristol, Rev. C. P. Croft of Westogue, Rev. R. A. Dunlap of Windsor Locks, Rev. C. M. Calderwood of Manchester and Rev. M. R. Plumb and wife of Windham.

When Coffee

Gets You—

The experience will be like that of thousands who have ignored the fact that coffee contains a habit-forming drug, caffeine—about 2½ grains to the ordinary cup.

Some say, "Coffee don't hurt me," and seem to get on with it for a time. But there are few persons who can use coffee as a routine daily beverage and not sometime feel its effects—headache, nervousness, indigestion, biliousness, sleeplessness, heart trouble, or some other discomfort.

Thousands have found relief by stopping coffee and using

POSTUM

A delicious table beverage made only from whole wheat and a small per cent of molasses, POSTUM contains the nourishment of the grain, including the essential mineral salts (phosphate of potash, etc.), but is positively free from the drug, caffeine, or any other harmful substance.

Postum now comes in two forms:

Regular Postum—must be well boiled—15c and 25c pkgs.

Instant Postum—a soluble form—requires no boiling—30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

There's a mighty army of POSTUM users—the number is steadily growing—and

"There's a Reason"

Grocers everywhere sell POSTUM.
